

BIG RED AL

DJ · RADIO · MIXES · BRIGHTON

BIOGRAPHY

It started aged 15 in Bristol – mind blown by friends' mixtapes of funk, jazz and latin. Nights at 'The Cooker', Bristol's answer to Gilles Peterson's Dingwalls sessions, with its own jazz dance troupe. A golden-age hip hop scene – Stetsasonic, Gang Starr, A Tribe Called Quest. A live jazz dance revival, early Acid House, Madchester.

Brighton in the early '90s – student gigs, a reggae sound system 'Mighty Vibrations', and years running the much-loved Electric Soul Party (ESP) at the Hanbury Ballrooms.

These days: Late Night Bigness on 1BTN, eight years and counting. Guests have included Nick The Record, Ray Mang, Bill Brewster, Payfone, Ben Gc, Fink and Sophie Lloyd. Resident at OnAir, Brighton's HiFi bar. Always the second Saturday, 10pm-midnight. Plus festivals across the country: Neon in Nature, Campo Sancho, Camp Bliss, Stompaphunk.
